

Trial Advocacy Course Requirements

Group One – Core courses (Required)

- Civil Procedure II OR Criminal Procedure – 3 credits
- Evidence – 3 credits

Group Two – Dispute Resolution (Minimum credit requirements: 2)

- Alternative Dispute Resolution – 2 credits
- Arbitration – 2 credits
- Negotiation – 3 credits
- Lodestar Mediation Clinic; Mediation Clinic – 5 credits
- Plea Bargains – 2 credits

Group Three – Litigation Requirement (Minimum credit requirements: 3)

- Trial Advocacy – 3 credits
- Criminal Litigation Experience – 4 credits
- Civil Litigation Experience – 4 credits
- Federal Practice & Procedure – 3 credits
- Civil Litigation Clinic – 1-6 Credits
- First Amendment Clinic – 1 credit
- Immigration Clinic – 6 credits
- Indian Legal Clinic – 6 credits
- Post-Conviction Clinic – 2 credits
- Prosecution Clinic – 6 credits
- Public Defender Clinic – 6 credits

Group Four – Electives (Minimum credit requirements: 4)

- Advanced Bankruptcy Seminar – 2 credits
- Advanced Criminal Procedure – 2-3 credits
- Adv Legal Writing – Litigation Practice – 3 credits
- Appellate Advocacy – 3 credits
- Arizona Criminal Law – 1-2 credits
- Chapter 11 Bankruptcy – 3 credits
- Civil Pretrial Practice – 2 credits
- Civil Rights Litigation – 2 credits
- Class Actions – 1-2 credits
- Construction Law – 2 credits
- Creditor Remedies – 1 credit
- Criminal Evidence – 3 credits
- Criminal Sentencing Seminar – 2 credits
- Death Penalty – 3 credits
- Debtor/Creditor & Bankruptcy Law – 3 credits
- Disability Law – 2 credits

- Electronic Discovery – 2 credits
- Family Law – 3 credits
- Federal Courts – 3 credits
- Federal Advocacy for the Tribal Client – 2 credits
- Federal Criminal Practice & Procedure – 3 credits
- Health Care Fraud Investigations-Litigation – 1 credit
- Law and Psychology – 2 credits
- Individual Rights in Constitutional Law – 3 credits
- International Criminal Justice – 3 credits
- Jurisprudence – 3 credits
- Jury Selection – 1 credit
- Law, Accounting, and Finance – 2 credits
- Law, Litigation & Science – 3 credits
- Malpractice Litigation – 1-2 credits
- Mass Tort Litigation – 2 credits
- Medical Error: The Next Generation of Law – 2 credits
- Medical Malpractice Litigation – 1 credit
- Mindfulness and the Law – 2 credits
- Persuasive Speech – 1 credit
- Privacy, Big Data, and Emerging Technologies – 2 credits
- Products Liability – 2 credits
- Prosecuting Trademark Applications – 1 credit
- Prosecutorial Ethics & Decision Making – 2 credits
- Public Interest Litigation – 2 credits
- Real Estate Foreclosure – 1 credit
- Real Estate Litigation – 1 credit
- Secured Transactions – 3 credits
- The State Attorneys General – 2 credits
- Working with Accounting Expert Witnesses – 2 credits
- Writing for Law Practice – 3 credits
- Victims in Criminal Procedure – 2 credits
- White Collar Crime – 2 credits
- Creative Writing for Lawyers – 1 credit
- Civil Rights Litigation – 2 credits

Other Requirements

Students must gain practical experience in client representation by completing one of the following prior to being awarded the certificate:

- Completion of a Rule 39 Externship
- Pro Bono Service – minimum of 50 hours working with an approved legal services organization

- Representation of the College of Law in a Regional, National, or International Moot Court or Mock Trial Competition

Students must provide documentation of having completed this requirement in order to be eligible to receive the certificate.