

ARIZONA STATE UNIVERSITY

___ LSAC Account #: ___

The Rules for determining Arizona Residency for purposes of admission and tuition to Arizona's public universities are set by the Arizona Board of Regents and interpreted, on Arizona State University's campus, by the Residency Classification Office. The Residency Office gives the College of Law limited ability to make an initial residency determination for applicants to the law school. In many cases if the information below is incomplete, we will be unable to grant residency, and residency will have to be further pursued through the Residency Classification Office. To be a resident of Arizona, a petitioner must show

- 12 months of physical presence (You must be at least 18 at the beginning of the domicile year.) To be eligible for classification as a resident for tuition purposes, you must provide clear and convincing evidence of continuous physical presence in the state of Arizona for the 12 months which precede the semester in question. The 12 month period is referred to as a domicile year. and
- Intent to establish a domicile Your evidence of intent to be a resident of this state is demonstrated by the absence of ties to your former state of residence. Actions used to indicate intent must be accomplished at the beginning of and maintained throughout the domicile year. If implementation of these steps is delayed, the start of your one year domicile period will be delayed. All requirements must be demonstrated for one full year before resident status may be granted. Samples of indicia of intent and additional information about residency can be found at http://www.students.asu.edu/residency.
